

Dear QUAD Cyclist,

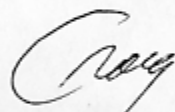

With a starting time of exactly 1:00:00, eight-year-old Scott Zurawski of Waterford began the ninth annual Saint Vincent QUAD Bike Race. Pretty close to five and a half hours later when Lex Allen pedaled his unicycle (that's right, his unicycle) across the finish line, the hottest ever QUAD Bike Race was history.

In between Scott and Lex was the stuff of what the Bike Race is: parents riding with their children, astute start and finish line workers, powerful rides from the likes of two-time winners Dave Ohmer and Debbie Mizikowski, traffic-control personnel working in the hot sun to allow fast rides, strange bikes and sleek aero-machines, road surfaces melting to tire grabbing tar, excited riders riding faster than they imagined and disappointed cyclists cycling slower than they hoped (unfortunately wind and heat made for more of the latter than the former.)

Along with my enduring gratitude to all our volunteers, a special thanks is extended to our beefed up traffic-control workers for their effort in making the race a safe one. And I'm sure I speak for hundreds of QUAD cyclists when I say that the Cranesville Fire Department's creation of a virtual water park near the finish line saved countless tired bodies and endless brain-fried psyches. Sometimes karma is everything.

Congratulations to all who endured. The QUAD Run awaits.

Sincerely,

Craig Latimer
