Dear QUAD Participant,

So that's what it's like, huh? Hey, this QUAD thing is alriiiiight! It would take vast pages for me to articulate my feelings and emotions about the 1992 Saint Vincent QUAD Ski Race. Certainly, a major factor in this great winter festival was the weather which, while very cold, was the best part of an otherwise scary winter week. For years people have been telling me how lucky we are with QUAD weather, and I'm now a confirmed believer.

As the days toward the race dwindled towards start time, I was extremely nervous about making sure the quality of the race stayed high while I participated in my first QUAD event ever. All of that pre-race anxiety was assuaged by the greatest collection of volunteers a QUADfather could ask for. Sue White, Jennifer Dorsch, Barb Ruscitto, Julie Chacona, Dotty Law, Jane Anderson and Bob Howden from the Saint Vincent Corporate Communications office have, for a number of years, been the driving wheel at registration while also performing a variety of thankless tasks at QUAD events. Perhaps thankless to others, but I thank you all very much.

Safety, of course, was a major concern and while young Jim Samuels hammered around the course, Jim Samuels senior was in full and capable control of the Nordic Ski Patrol. Many of you who tumbled down 2-J know the great security and help they provided.

Finally, huge thanks to our network of snowmobilers who kept after changing snow conditions, whipping trails and fairways together to make our 10th Anniversary QUAD Ski Race such a great event.

There were many, many others who contributed and helped allow me to have a most memorable experience. The QUAD Ski Race is a day that makes a lot of memories, and I hope yours are as special as the ones that I will take from that day.

See you at the swim.

Sincerely,

Craig Latimer
