

QUAD One & All,

The QUAD Run... the final event of the Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield QUAD season is unique from the other three competitions in that it's a time of great satisfaction and reflection for those who crossed all four finish lines. It feels good to look back at the discipline, practice, fitness and variety the four events brought to our lives during the 1998 QUAD season.

Remember that snowy day in January and everyone's shock when the ski race actually started - on the day it was scheduled! How about the anxiety of the swim - remember the relief and satisfaction of having the "Wet 100" behind you?

Think of summer. Think of tomatoes, corn on the cob, visits to Presque Isle and the other summer fixture that comes to mind - the QUAD Bike Race.

Finally, reflect on the last finish line - the QUAD Run - and the conclusion of the 1998 season. In all your preparation, during all your practice runs, you likely did not run in any weather that was hotter than at race time on Sept. 26. In some 15 or 16 previous QUAD Runs, this may have been the hottest race ever. But you hung in there and did it.

The QUAD Champions recognized in this book probably will not have their photo in Sports Illustrated or within the colorful spaces of USA Today's sports page. Of greater value is that each of these participants can reflect on a year of fitness, fun, new friends and great memories. Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield applauds your efforts and hopes that the QUAD has helped you attain your 1998 fitness goals and that you will continue to use the four-event season as a source for family fun, discipline in practice and year-round fitness - leading to a better quality of life and health.

Congratulations on a season of new experiences and take pride in what you've accomplished. Hope to see you at the QUAD Awards or on the starting line of the 17th Annual Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield QUAD Ski Race on January 24, 1999 at Peek 'n Peak.

Sincerely,

Pete
