Dear Fellow Highmark QUAD Participant,

Hey, do I have to wake up now? Was this all a dream? If it was, please, can I just roll over and have a few more winks?

Approximately 722 days had transpired since the last Highmark QUAD Ski Race took place and a little over eleven years had drifted by since I last found myself on the starting line of the event.

I know that I can't properly put into words exactly what an impact that whole day had on me. If I said I was greatly relived the event took place and was over, it would sound like something that was a burden and I was glad to be done with it. Certainly, there was relief to not have to go through the Anxietal Weather Dance any longer but my overwhelming impression was that I had actually forgotten to some extent just what a marvelous event the Highmark QUAD Ski Race is. To watch it each year has been exhilarating and this year to participate... Well, a person just doesn't get enough days like that in a lifetime. Sure, it was a cold winter day but it was filled with fluffy snowflakes against the beauty of the Upper Golf Course and the spectacular visual colors of the participants gliding all over. The best part for me was walking around the Powerade table and finish line area afterwards and seeing lots of smiles and hearing snippets of happy conversation. I know I'm too close to the forest to make an objective comment but there simply isn't another event like this anywhere.

My very sincere thanks to: Dr. Mark Buseck of Saint Vincent Sports Medicine; the General McLane Wrestling Team who, when they are not leaving a scorched path in the wake of their ECL opponents, function as a great group of volunteers; special thanks also to my wonderful friends and support crew at the YMCA for assistance before, during and after race day.

Hey! I did all four events! I'm a Highmark QUAD Champion!!

Sincerely,
